FOOD

Main menu 11.30am - 11pm. Children's menu available.

With shopping well established here by the early 19th century, Brixton has long been famous for its shops and markets. In 1824, there were also seven pubs and six boot and shoemakers. In 1909, a shoe shop opened in these premises. Truform's eventually closed in 1993 and became The Beehive. The pub takes its name from Beehive Place, at the rear, which was originally known as Back Lane and was built to serve those properties fronting onto Brixton Road.
